Come O Fount — Bless the Lord

Good To Me

I Surrender

Scripture Reading: Psalm 103 : 6 - 12

The LORD gives righteousness and justice to all who are treated unfairly. ⁷He revealed his character to Moses and his deeds to the people of Israel.

⁸The LORD is compassionate and merciful, slow to get angry and filled with unfailing love. ⁹He will not constantly accuse us, nor remain angry forever. ¹⁰He does not punish us for all our sins; he does not deal harshly with us, as we deserve. ¹¹For his unfailing love toward those who fear him is as great as the height of the heavens above the earth. ¹²He has removed our sins as far from us as the east is from the west.

Refugee Fund Update

Thanks, everyone, for your magnificent response to our appeal for funds in March. You gave over $2500 in March, and the Refugee Fund should be comfortably off. Unfortunately, the current pandemic has affected refugees just as it has affected everybody else, and we are once again appealing for donations. We had to give temporary financial support to one refugee family where all their working members lost jobs because of COVID-19. Fortunately they are all in employment again, but the Fund is once more at a low ebb. I appreciate that not everyone can afford increased giving at this time, but if you can spare some cash, it couldn't go to a better cause.

If giving by cheque please write "Refugee Fund" in the memo or include a note with the cheque. Please note the mailbox at the south entrance is locked and secure for dropping off cheques.

If giving by e-transfer please write "Refugee Fund" in the message.

If giving online, please select "Refugee Fund" from the dropdown of options.

WHAT'S HAPPENING

Prayer Update from Square One World Media

Dear Friends,

Covid-19 is affecting our world in ways we could not have imagined just a few short months ago.

People everywhere are anxious about their health, families, and financial needs. They grieve the loss of freedoms, of social interaction, or even of sitting with loved ones as they suffer! People are lonely and isolated, confused with all the changes, or afraid for the future. If you are feeling any of these things, you are not alone.

More than ever, the world needs the risen Saviour.

Our producers are following the "work from home" order and finding creative ways to share the hope and peace found only in Jesus with the world.

Siblings Garri Sergienko and Albina Nikitina are combining songs from past Ella's Backyard episodes with Girish Manuel's cartoon illustrations from our Low German Children's Bible Storybook to make Russian music videos. By repurposing what we already have, they can post a new music video every week. And thousands of families are watching. View a sample on our website.

Ernesto and Marina Pinto of Encuentro are live streaming on Facebook in Spanish every day. Their followers are growing, and radio stations transmit their programs as they happen. Find out more on our website.

For several years, Andrei Chernomor at The Bible Today-Ukraine has been sharing Christ with a growing audience through Instagram. With the 2-person gathering limit Ukraine has now instituted, social media has become the best way to connect. Read more on our website.

These are just a few examples of how we continue to preach Christ crucified in the midst of all the challenges.

To help us keep in touch with you, we've recently launched a short video news segment called Square One News Minute where host Eric Boorman gives updates about what's going on within our ministry. You can view the videos on our website, or on our Facebook and Instagram pages.

Hello From Home

We encourage everyone, young and not as young, to use your phone to take a quick video of you and your family at home during this time to share with our church family. Please email videos to Jeremy@pachurch.ca.
