MISSION UPDATE: Rudi Plett (ICOMB)

Dear Friends:

“Some of you will rebuild the deserted ruins of your cities. Then you will be known as a rebuilders of walls and a restorer of homes.” Isaiah 58:12

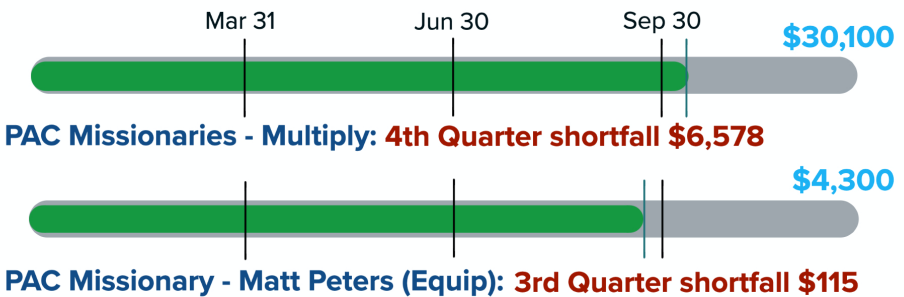

This was written to the Israelites, so they would not just stay still in their difficult situation but build up again. Maybe the motivation was low, the means very limited, and the assurance to finish it very weak. But they were challenged to build up, not just a stone wall, but a future: homes, families, community life, worship, and places to proclaim the work and glory of God.

Is this not a message to every Christian, every church, and every family of churches also? We all live in a world where brokenness is present. Present in different areas of our personal, family, church, and community life. The last two years have given us new opportunities but have also caused destruction. We are called to rebuild and build new things, looking into the future. To build up broken hearts, relationships, worship times, and community life. To build up places and moments to proclaim God’s Word, His glory, His love, and His call to all humankind.

May this update encourage you to see some of what God is building and doing in our global family.

United in Christ, Rudi Plett
