Care Givers of the Week:

Condolences - our prayers and condolences go to Dorothy Huebert, whose brother-in-law Art Huebert passed away on June 20.

Thank you! - Mary and I wish to express our sincere thanks to our church family for all the prayer support during Mary's time of illness and for the successful procedure done called TAVI (transcatheter aortic valve implantation.) All your prayers, well wishes, phone calls, cards, and inquiries have been much appreciated. Thank you so much. Right now Mary is in recovery. She needs to get her strength back after being inactive for several months. It is a slow process. We are so grateful for a praying church. - Nick & Mary Poetker

MISSION UPDATE – Central Multiply Canada

For over twenty years I have been calling, equipping, and sending young adults to be on mission among our global family of missionaries. Recently at the International Community of MB Churches (ICOMB) summit in Curitiba Brazil, Jose Prada, our Colombian mission partner shared a word of encouragement.

“Carol, when you sent ACTION teams to us, they emboldened our Colombian young adults to go into the community and translate their testimonies, and share the Gospel of Jesus. Our Colombian youth were encouraged by the Canadian youth and vice-versa. Today we have new church plants in the communities where they ministered together. There are more communities that need reaching, can you send us teams of young adults again?”

Encouragement goes both ways! The Canadian youth went to Colombia with a prepared testimony and eagerness to serve. The Colombians were encouraged to share boldly in their home community because they were hosting the Canadians. Together, these young people exercised faith in Jesus and the seeds of the Gospel were planted, watered, and bore a harvest.

Can we imagine inviting youth from other nations, languages, and cultures to join us on mission in our city or community... to encourage this generation of disciple-makers and church planters? Together, that the world may know Jesus!

LOOKING FORWARD

As we get into some warmer summer weather, it's a time to get outside and enjoy being together as a church. Our church picnics are a great opportunity to do this, as well as our 55+ garden luncheon. The church picnics will continue on the 2nd Sunday of July and August. At our June picnic we enjoyed the new location in Assiniboine Park, with ample shade and easy access to the bathrooms, but there was limited parking nearby due to a large event in the park. There should be much more parking available in July and August, because there aren't any large events scheduled in the park on those picnic days. We hope you will join us!

For Further Reflection:

Use these questions for personal reflection or with your small group.

1. What is a spiritual discipline that you can implement in your life to help nurture your relationship with Jesus?
2. What are some tangible ways in which you prioritize your relationship with Jesus on a daily basis?
3. What are some patterns in your life that you would like to change and what patterns would you like to instill in your life?
4. And how do you go about making those changes in your life?
